Permission to work in the UK

The United Kingdom's conditions for people, who are not British by birth but are allowed to work in the UK, vary according to their nationality, and it is changing all the time. A list of the situation for each type of the nationalities would be quite long. However Amy Cleaning only passes people who are fully legal to work in the UK. We are very strict in this area, both for the protection of our clients, the company and our reputation.

Because we are so stringent, potential cleaners without permission to work in the UK know that it is not worth them even trying to approach Amy Cleaning. We do not tolerate such activities.
