

Help and Advice

I have never had a cleaner before

The cleaner wants to earn money, and have the respect of doing a good, honest job. You need help cleaning your home, and so it is a great trade as you need them, and they need you.

Simply treat the person with care and respect like you would with any other person, and they should mutually do the same. We hope that your cleaner loves you, and you love the cleaner, and you will both be very happy.

If that is not the case, we can change the cleaner for you at any time, so you are with a cleaner who respects and wishes to work for you. Please do not have any concerns; our managers are always here to help you. We have been doing this for almost 20 years, and have prepared for every contingency.
